Application # 10/027,695

I'm not sure why the "Notice of Allowance" was sent to my former attorney. I had previously filed a "Revocation of power of Attorney" and the appropriate address change. I called the inventors assistance center and they said that my name and address was correctly listed for all correspondence. Perhaps there was just some time delay involved. In any case I am including the forms for the changes again just in case you need them.

Thank You
